

Balch & Bingham and Bachara Construction Law Group Announce Of Counsel Relationship

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (October 1, 2019) -- Bachara Construction Law Group (BCLG) and Balch & Bingham today announced that the firms have established an “of counsel” relationship to further expand the capabilities provided to their clients. Balch’s Jacksonville office is also co-located with BCLG in the landmark Wells Fargo Center in downtown Jacksonville.

Jeremy Gregory, managing office partner of Balch’s Jacksonville office, said, “The team at Bachara Construction Law Group shares our commitment to delivering outstanding client service and tailored solutions to advance our clients’ objectives. Their deep industry knowledge and experience will benefit our clients as their construction needs continue to grow across the region.”

“We are delighted to work alongside our colleagues at Balch and to serve as a resource for their clients,” said Chip Bachara, managing partner of BCLG. “And we’re pleased to be able to offer our clients the skill and experience of known and trusted attorneys in areas outside our core practice. It’s a win-win for everyone involved.”

ABOUT BCLG

Jacksonville’s Bachara Construction Law Group has regularly been recognized for excellence in construction litigation since its founding in 2007, and was recently named a Best Lawyers-U.S. News & World Report Tier One Construction Law Firm for the third time. With decades of collective experience, firsthand knowledge of the construction industry and a full range of complementary skills and expertise, BCLG represents clients in every aspect of construction law. Because larger firms and government frequently call upon the firm to take the lead in highly technical, high profile construction disputes, BCLG has been involved in nearly every major construction dispute in Northeast Florida, along with others in South Florida and Georgia.

ABOUT BALCH

With more than 200 attorneys in offices across the Southeast and in Washington, D.C., Balch & Bingham LLP is a corporate law firm recognized nationally for its deep experience and counsel in regulated industries including energy and financial services, and its highly regarded practices in business, environmental, government relations, labor and employment, litigation and healthcare. The firm’s Jacksonville office, opened in 2012, includes attorneys with deep knowledge and experience managing complex litigation, corporate, financial services and real estate matters. Balch’s attorneys are known for their collaborative, multidisciplinary approach, and the firm’s commitment to an uncommon and efficient client experience has remained at the core of its mission since its founding in 1922.