

For Immediate Release

Contact: Susan Pelter
(904) 608-0798

BACHARA GROUP WELCOMES HALEY BRANSCOME

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 1, 2020 – Bachara Construction Law Group recently welcomed its newest team member, paralegal Haley Branscome.

Branscome came to the firm from the State Attorney’s Office for the Fourth Judicial Circuit, where she served as a Prosecution Support Specialist and Victim Advocate in the Juvenile Division.

“We are pleased to have Haley on the Bachara team,” said managing partner Chip Bachara. “She came highly recommended and we are confident she will be a great asset to our clients and the firm!”

Branscome, a Jacksonville native who previously served as an extended day teacher with Duval County Public Schools, holds a B.A. in Criminal Justice and Psychology and a master’s degree in Criminal Justice from the University of North Florida. She was named SAO’s “Paralegal of the Year” in 2019.

“I’m happy about the opportunity to work with such a well-respected firm,” said Branscome, “and look forward to expanding my knowledge and supporting the attorneys here.”

About Bachara Construction Law Group

Since 2007, Bachara Construction Law Group has provided legal representation to public and private owners, developers, design professionals, contractors, construction trades and material suppliers throughout the Southeast. With decades of collective experience in all aspects of construction law, the firm’s attorneys handle every type of construction dispute -- and take pride in providing top-level talent, technology and results along with personal service and attention.

**###